Perigon Club

The Perigon Club is the oldest club in this school, dating from May 3, 1922. It is devoted to the consideration of mathematical diversions and kindred topics. One activity is the game of chess, and a tournament is held each spring to determine the chess champion of the school. Picnics and other socials are held occasionally.

Major Harry E. Menezes, Commandant of Cadets, National Guard, U. S. Army, World War I, Army of Occupation in France, Officer's Reserve Corps.

Staff Sergeant Fred Wiess has served in the U. S. Army eighteen years. He has seen service in the Philippines, China, and Panama.

Sergeant Jacque Nixon has served in the U. S. Army for six years. He has seen service in Ireland, Scotland, England, France, Algeria, Tunisia, Sicily, and Italy. He holds the Silver Star and the Purple Heart with the Oak Leaf Cluster.

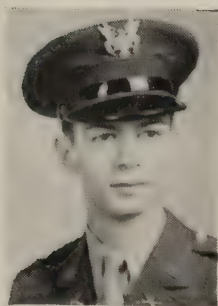

Cadet Lieutenant Colonel (Ret.) Don F. Simmons, Assistant to the Commandant of Cadets.

Reserve Officers Training Corps

AIMS

1. To provide systematic military training in civil education institutions for the purpose of qualifying students for appointment as reserve officers and non-commissioned officers in the military forces of the United States.
2. To add to the educational resources of schools and colleges and give students a training which will be valuable in their industrial or professional careers as it would be should the nation call upon them to act as leaders in the armed forces.
3. To develop qualities of manliness, discipline, and leadership which will make these young men good citizens and natural leaders of men in whatever calling they may follow in years to come.

1944 Football Season

In the 1944 football season the "Bulldogs" lived up to their name of "determined fighters." Sparked by a new spirit from the student body, the Orange-clad eleven went all out to pull down third place in the district championship.

Termed the upset team of the season after defeating the second place Crozier Tech "Wolves" by a score of 26-7, the "Bulldogs" went on to an even greater triumph when they ruined the untied, unscored-on record of the powerful, district winning Sunset team in an exciting game which ended with a score of 13-13.

Coach Rufus Hyde with his wind sprints, his varied formations (T-formation, box, double wing, single wing, overshifted T, and spreads), his strenuous workouts, his patience, his fairness, and his belief that determination is half the game, proved that the lightest and one of the least experienced teams in the city could show up more powerful teams if they just had a good coach to teach and train them.

Line-Coach, Earl "Bessie" Atkins, after giving hard blocking practice, and very excellent instruction, finally got the linemen to do some pretty fair blocking, and proved that the back-field couldn't star without the line.

Coach J. R. Williams, assisted by E. J. Hutchins (star tackle of last year) led the goat squad "Marauders" to a successful season. Outstanding players on the Maruders were Bobby Davis, A. L. Lockhard, Jim Bradley, Perry Wilson, and Jimmy Fitzgerald.

The only disconcerting part of the season was when the "Bulldogs" bowed down in two very hard-fought games to their time honored rivals, the Woodrow Wilson "Wildcats." The "Bulldogs" missed breaking the eight-year jinx by one point each time.

Much credit for the successful season must be given to the Booster Committee, consisting of Jay Moore, J. A. Marino, Donald Howard, Gloria Knight, Jett Prewitt, Jane Griffen, and Rosemary Carter, who revived the lost spirit of North Dallas High School.

Credit should also be given to the North Dallas "Flunk-out" team and the second string players who constantly battled the first string skirmishes. The boys worked just as hard, but due to the restrictions on letters gailed to obtain them. A few are Rex Thomas, Jimmy Wallace, Gene Dubey, Jack Cleveland, Kenneth McAlexander, Ray Barker, Douglas Dameron, Dick Jackson, Bill Hunter, Billy Lemmons, D. C. Chancey, Earnest Thompson, Harold Veech, Johnny Goodwin, George Sutton, Max Murrell, Charles Williams, Bill Dodson.

The "Bulldogs" are expected to do even better next year with many experienced players and much gained spirit returning.

Coaches

Left to Right--Earl Atkins, Line Coach; Rufus Hyde, Head Coach; J. R. Williams, Goat Squad Coach; E. J. Hutchins, Assistant Line Coach.

First Row: Earl Martin, Jack Talley, Henry Dickerson, Roy Poe.

Second Row: Nick Puskurica, Gilman Gray, Reggie Davis, Ernest Easley, Jack Carpenter.

Football Lettermen

EARL MARTIN—Fullback—almost outdid Ben Dean with his swivel-hipped running, his beautiful passing and kicking, and his determined defensive play.

JACK TALLEY—Guard—smallest guard in the city—proved this in his ability to get through even the smallest hole in the opponent's line—tough and steady.

HENRY DICKERSON—All-city end—all-state honorable mention—co-captain—two-year letterman—won many games with his "silver toe" in kicking extra points.

ROY POE—End—two-year letterman—most powerful man on the team—occasionally played full-back where he smashed many opposing lines—rough and tough.

NICK PUSPURICA—Guard—"Blackout" gave all he had—never failed to set the opposing team back ten yards on his first appearance in the game—played tackle as well as guard.

GILMAN GRAY—Tackle—constantly confused the opponents by playing in their backfield—even though blocked, "Twingle-toes" could grab the ball carried with his octopus-like arms.

REGGIE DAVIS—Blocking Back—through the center, that's Reggie: powerful on both defense and offense—wonderful pass receiver and interceptor.

ERNEST EASLEY—Center—all-city second team—co-captain—best defensive player on the orange-clad eleven—responsible for the minimum number of fumbles which the Bulldogs suffered.

JACK CARPENTER—Tailback—all-city second string—powerful, elusive runner—wouldn't be hurt and couldn't be stopped.

First Row: Harold Powell, J. R. Williams, Jerry Harris, Bill Martin.

Second Row: Ben Dean Sheats, Stephen Von Phul, Bill Wilson, Lee High.

Football Lettermen

HAROLD POWELL—Guard—showed the determination of the Bulldogs—small, but powerful—wonderful defensive player.

J. R. WILLIAMS—Manager—refreshed team with water—bandaged them up daily—kept them from carrying away all the equipment—to him we owe our deepest appreciation.

JERRY HARRIS—Blocking back—an example of the "fightin' Irish"—Ikey, although small, one of the roughest, toughest, defensive players on the team.

BILL MARTIN—Guard—"Scariace" couldn't avoid getting his head under every play—fast—ever showed the Bulldog "never quit spirit."

BEN DEAN SHEATS—All-city fullback—all-state honorable mention—winner of "Seasons Most Valuable Player" award—pin-point passer—powerful kicker—deceptive runner—backbone of team.

STEPHEN VON PHUL—Wingback—ace ball carrier—pass receiver and interceptor—when mad the "Baron" couldn't be stopped.

BILL WILSON—Tackle—his 195 pounds stretched over a six-foot four-inch frame and proved too much for the opposing lines—one of the mainstays of the team.

LEE HIGH—Wing back—quiet, but resourceful—never failed—wonderful runner and pass receiver.

Basketball

The 1944-45 Basketball team coached by J. R. Williams ran into hard luck in the City Series after a good pre-season showing. The Bulldogs won only one game, defeating Adamson, and lost nine. Most of these games were close and the Bulldogs fought hard all the way. One of the biggest disappointments was the second Tech game which the Bulldogs lost by one point. This game was disputed because there was a question of whether Tech's last two points should count. A Tech man was fouled as the buzzer sounded and was given two shots, which he won the game for Tech. There were several good performances given by John Hansen and D. C. Chancey, who were given "All City Honorable Mention." The Bulldogs won second place in the Fort Worth Invitation Tournament, losing to North Side in the finals. Ben Sheats, John Hansen, and Henry Dickerson were picked on the "All Tournament" team. The Bulldogs went to the quarter finals in the Bulldog Tournament losing to Waco, the eventual winners, by one point.

The lettermen are Bobby Davis, Marc Moore, J. R. Williams, D. C. Chancey, Eddie Acker, Pete Hansen, John Hansen, Billy Kaufman (manager), and also Ben Den Sheats and Henry Dickerson who graduated in January. The lettermen returning next year are Davis, Williams and Chancey. Squadmen returning are Roger Davis, Sonny Price, and Sid Boyd.

Track Team

Tennis Team

The nineteen forty-five tennis team, coached by Mr. Anderson, is composed of Bobbye Field, Sara Jo Reid, Lena Laurea, and Gloria McClutcheon in girls' singles, Joann Cooley and Franchelle Moore in girls' doubles, Jackie Cooper and Harold Schmidt in boys' doubles, and Max Murrell, Kenneth MacAlexander, and Guy Wallace in boys' singles. The only returning letterman is Jack Cooper. Also from the nineteen forty-four team is the girls' doubles team Joann Cooley and Franchelle Moore.

Golf Team

The nineteen forty-five golf team, coached by Mr. Witmeyer, is composed of Dick Schmiedeke, Charles Chatfield, Billy Penn, Dee Ogden, Richard Henley, and Richard Hall. The entire team is made up of new players. Inexperienced Dick Schmiedeke looms as the best prospect. In their first encounter, they were defeated by Woodrow Wilson.

Prof.: "Decline 'love,' Miss Jones."

Miss Jones: "Decline love, professor? Not me."

* * *

Officer: "Why were you late to formation?"

Private: "I squeezed out too much tooth paste and had a hard time getting it back in the tube, sir."

* * *

"Have you been through calculus?" inquired the college professor.

"Not unless I passed through at night on my way here," replied the new student. "I'm from Kansas, you know."

* * *

Host: "I thought of sending some of these cigars to the front."

Guest: "How can you be sure the Nazis will get them?"

* * *

-At a roll call in a Russian regiment it is reported that an officer sneezed and four soldiers promptly answered, "Here."

* * *

Two Nazis met on a Berlin boulevard. "I have inside information," whispered the first, "about England's invasion."

"Vonderful," said the other, "When are dey comink?"

* * *

Drill Sergeant to Rookie: "Wipe that opinion off your face."

* * *

Officer: "You brought me the wrong boots. Can't you see that one of them is black and the other is brown?"

Orderly: "Yes, sir, but the other pair is just the same."

A patriotic lady who sent out the following invitation to an officer at a nearby army post: "Mr. and Mrs. Browne request the pleasure of Captain Green's company at dinner," was dismayed at the reply she received.

"With the exception of five men on leave and three on sick list," the reply read, "Captain Green's company accept with pleasure your invitation."

* * *

The real problem of your leisure is how to keep other people from using it.

* * *

The Army Air Corps is noted for rapid promotion of young officers. A sign over the officers' club bar in a California camp reads: "No lieutenant colonels of the Army Air Forces allowed at the bar unless accompanied by their parents."

* * *

If she were twice as cute as she tries to be, she still wouldn't be half as cute as she thinks she is.

* * *

The fat man and his wife were returning to their seats in the theater after the intermission.

"Did I tread on your toes as I went out?" he asked a man at the end of the row.

"You did," replied the other grimly, expecting an apology.

The fat man turned to his wife. "All right, Mary," he said, "this is our row."

* * *

"Pa, dear," wheedled the fond mama, "Bobbie's teacher wrote us a note saying he must have an Encyclopedia."

"Encyclopedia, heck!" growled dad. "Let him walk to school like I did."

* * *

Question: "What did the lightning bug say when he lost his tail?"

Answer: "I'm delighted—no end."

* * *

SOUNDS GOOD

"I represent the Mountain Wool Company, ma'am. Would you be interested in some coarse yarns?"

"Gosh, yes! Tell me a couple!"

PRE-WAR DEAL

It happened at an income tax office in Washington. A colored resident, with his form all filled out, approached the "Pay" window and laid a quarter on the ledge.

"What's that for?" asked the clerk, who had read the total amount of the tax.

"Why, that's for my income tax! They done told me I could pay a quarter at a time."

* * *

AMERICAN "INJUNUITY"

A G. I. Joe from Oklahoma was enjoying the hospitality of a British home. The host sought to put his guest at ease with conversation about America.

"You Yanks amaze me with your ingenuity," he commented. "Is it something you inherit from your ancestors?"

The Oklahoma lad was baffled by the word "ingenuity," but he was willing to hazard a guess.

"Ingenuity?" he repeated. "Oh, yeah, we get that from the Injuns!"

* * *

Student: "To whom was Minerva married?"

Professor: "M yboy, when will you learn that Minerva was the Goddess of Wisdom? She wasn't married."

A little Scotch boy's grandmother was packing his luncheon for him to take to school one morning. Suddenly looking up in the old lady's face, he said:

"Grandmother, do yer specs magnify?"

"A little, my child," she answered.

"Aweel, then," said the boy, "I wad juist like it if ye wad ta' them off when ye're packin' my loonch."

The Negro entering prison was sad. "Ah cain't do all this sentence," he sighed.

"How long is it?" asked a deputy.

"Life," said the despondent Negro.

"Well," said the deputy kindly, "just do what you can of it."

Those who have tried to drive through some of the red clay of Georgia backroads will like this.

The motorist had paid a farmer three dollars to pull him back on the road, and inquired about the number of cars the man helped out.

"Sometimes as high as ten or twelve a day."

"Do you pull them out at night, too?" asked the tourist.

"Nope, we haul water for the roads at night."

* * *

A private, wanting leave, told his captain a sad story about his sick wife longing for him. The captain doubted and said: "I'm afraid that you are not telling the truth. I have just received a letter from your wife urging me not to let you come home because you get drunk, break the furniture, and mistreat her shamefully."

The private saluted and started to go. Then he paused and said, "Sor, may I speak to you, not as an officer, but as mon to mon?"

"Yes, what is it?"

"Well, sor, I was just thinkin' you and I are two of the most iligant liars that ever lived. You see, I'm not married at all."

* * *

"What did you name youah baby, Mose?" a friend inquired of a proud colored father.

"Electricity," said Mose.

"Queer name," said the friend, "Why you name him that?"

"Well, mah name's Mose, an' mah wife's name's Dinah, an' if Dinahmose don't make electricity, what does dey make?"

* * *

A colored woman came to the plantation office to receive her wages. Always before, being unable to write, she had made a cross mark on the receipt. This time she drew a circle.

"Why didn't you make a cross as usual?" the clerk asked her.

"Why," she explained, "Ah done got married yesterday an' changed mah name."

Sandy had been desperately ill for some while and his daughter went out of the sick room with the doctor, another Scot, when he left and asked if he thought Sandy would weather the spell. "Well, lass, I can't say, but I wouldn't buy na more than a half bottle of tha' medicine this time if it was me."

* * *

The physician's young son and a neighbor lad were playing in the office of the doctor. Suddenly the young host threw open a closet and disclosed an articulated skeleton. The visiting lad was promptly and properly horrified. The doctor's son explained that his father was extremely proud of that skeleton.

"Is he? Why?"

"Oh, I dunno. Maybe it was his first patient."

* * *

Schoolmaster: "If Shakespeare were alive today, would he still be regarded as a remarkable man?"

Pupil: "I'd think so, for he'd be 376 years old."

A new patient at a sanitarium for the mildly deranged complained to the attending physician. "What's the idea of sticking me in a room with that crazy guy over there?"

"Well, I'll tell you," said the doctor placatingly, "it's the only room we have available just now. Is your roommate troublesome?"

"Why, the guy's crazy! He keeps looking around and saying, 'No lions, no tigers, no elephants,' and all the time the room is full of them!"

"The best rejection slip I ever heard of," Russell Crouse told a group of authors, "was an editor's note attached to heavy manuscript. It read: 'I'm returning this paper—someone wrote on it.'"

* * *

Recently I have been having trouble with public laundries shrinking my unmentionables, so I found a large railroad spike and tied a tag to it with this inscription: "Try and shrink this!" When my laundry was returned, I opened it and found a small carpet tack with a tag tied to it inscribed: "We did!"

"Why are you suddenly taking French lessons?"

"Well, we adopted a French baby and we're eager to know what he says when he begins to talk."

* * *

A Chicago gangster took it into his head to send his son to school. They arrived at the principal's office. "What you got?" asked the father.

"Sir, we offer arithmetic, trigonometry, spelling, etc."

"Waal, give 'im trigernometry. He's de woist shot in de family."

This sailor ordered two dozen roses to be sent to his beloved on her twenty-fourth birthday. "A rose for every precious year of your life," his card read.

The florist threw in an extra dozen because the young fellow was one of his best customers.

And the wedding hasn't taken place yet.
